Park Place Energy Corp. Announces Participation in Major German Investor Conference

Calgary, Alberta, September 7, 2007 - Park Place Energy Corp. ("Park Place" or the "Corporation") is pleased to announce that it will be presenting the latest information about the company's oil and gas activities at one of the largest German investor conferences – the IAM in Düsseldorf – taking place September 7 to 9, 2007.

Park Place Energy's President and CEO, David Stadnyk said the Düsseldorf conference is a key element in its strategy to attract European investors. The organizers of the event expect 10,000 private and institutional investors to attend the show.

"Germany, in particular, is an influential investor market for us especially for our high impact oil and gas projects in the North Sea off the coast of Scotland and our major natural gas discovery in northern British Columbia, Canada," said Mr. Stadnyk. "These projects alone represent multi-million-dollar potential revenue prospects for us.

ABOUT PARK PLACE ENERGY

Park Place Energy is first and foremost an international high impact energy play corporation. Currently, its primary activity is in oil and gas exploration in the North Sea, as well as the development and production of its Canadian assets including the recently announced major gas find in British Columbia. Park Place utilizes its expertise in the oil and gas industry to enhance shareholder value and profitability by pursuing attractive opportunities in the international oil and gas industry. Using the appropriate financial resources and the latest technologies, Park Place Energy, alone or through creative joint ventures and innovative partnerships, has a strategic five-year operating plan to optimize profitability and shareholder value.
